

LEVEL 1 INTERNATIONAL LAWS REFEREE

Quiz 1

- Q1. Red is in possession of the ball on Tackle 3 and the ball bursts. What is the referee's decision?
- A1. a) Scrum, loose head and put into Red?
b) Scrum, loose head and put into the attacking team?
- Q2. If the same incident occurred after the last tackle, what would be the call?
- A2. a) Handover to the opposition?
b) Scrum, loose head and put into Red?
- Q3. Red is awarded a penalty and a Red player is returning to the field after receiving attention for bleeding and elects to take the kick. What is the referee's decision?
- A3. a) The player cannot take the kick?
b) Allow the player to take the kick?
- Q4. Two players are running side by side near to, and towards, the ball. Red shoulder charges the Blue player. Decision?
- A4. a) Play on?
b) Penalty to Blue?
- Q5. Red grubber kicks a ball into the Blue in-goal. The Red player and a Blue player ground the ball simultaneously in the Blue in-goal. Neither player being in touch, touch-in-goal or on, or over, the dead ball line. Decision?
- A5. a) Goal line drop out by Blue?
b) Award the try to Red?
- Q6. Red is tackled after the third play-the-ball and grounds the ball at the foot of the goal posts in the field of play. Decision?
- A6. a) Award the try?
b) No try. Play-the-ball, Tackle 4?

Q7. Red attempts to force the ball for a try in the Blue in-goal but comes into contact with the referee and loses the ball. The referee would:-

- A7. a) award a try where contact took place?
b) disallow the try?

Q8. When attempting a conversion after a try, the team can:-

- A8. a) take a place kick or a drop kick?
b) take a place kick only?

Q9. Red attempts a drop goal. The ball in flight is touched by Blue but the ball travels over the cross bar and goes over the dead ball line. Decision?

- A9. a) Disallow the drop goal?
b) Award the drop goal?

Q10. Red is awarded a penalty and elects to kick for goal. The ball passes over the top of the upright. Should match officials:-

- A10. a) award the goal?
b) disallow the goal?